Note
1	MFF Master Classes are shown on the web site. MFF Master Classes cover a number of subjects each year and this options enables a sponsor to pick an event that is of interest to attend and opportunity to promote their offering.
2	With an average attendance of 50 members at master class and 250 at the annual conference sponsors have the opportunity to circulate advertising materials.
3	MFF have made a significant investment in their website not just in style and accessibility but importantly the content. Sponsors are shown on the home page with a link to the sponsor's page where our sponsor's logo can be shown with a link to their own website. Where required sponsors can show on their own websites that they are supporters of the Midlands Fraud Forum.
4	MFF hold an annual conference, usually in February. Attendees have a membership of MFF for one year allowing them or a substitute to attend all master classes throughout the year. Membership types are defined on the website.
5	An exhibitor's stand opportunity available at the annual conference, usually in February and in the Birmingham area attended by c 250.
6	Sponsors are able to have material electronically mailed by the MFF Admin team to all attendees. MFF will only share contact details for those members who have not opted out of 3 rd party circulars.
7	Our "Platinum" sponsors will have their name and logo added to the front page of any MFF event flyers and programmes.
8	MFF circulate members each week with a summary of fraud related news and publications. Platinum sponsors are able to add any relevant items to the Weekly Digest.
